

Australian Government
Classification Review Board

2 September 2009

MEDIA RELEASE

Review announced for the film Julie & Julia

The Classification Review Board has received an application to review the classification of the film Julie & Julia.

Julie & Julia was classified M (Mature) with the consumer advice 'Infrequent coarse language' by the Classification Board on 24 August 2009.

The Classification Review Board will meet on Saturday 12 September to consider the application.

If an individual or organisation wishes to make a submission as an interested party to this review, please write to the Convenor of the Review Board. The closing date to lodge your submission is Monday 7 September 2009. Submissions should be emailed to crb@classification.gov.au or sent to:

The Convenor
Classification Review Board
Locked Bag 3
HAYMARKET NSW 1240

The Classification Review Board's decision and reasons for its decisions will appear on the Classification website once the review has been finalised.

The Classification Review Board is an independent merits review body. Meeting in camera, it makes a fresh classification decision upon receipt of an application for review. The Classification Review Board decision takes the place of the original decision made by the Classification Board.

Media contact

Media Enquiries Officer 02 9289 7100